PROFESSIONAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

PHILOSOPHY AND APPROACH:

I embrace a client-centered, strength based, and integrative style of therapy. My goal is to provide an empathic space where the client can move towards psychological balance and wholeness. I work with a wide range of issues including depression, anxiety, trauma, PTSD, eating disorders, substance abuse, creativity, relationship issues, job stress, grief and loss, and offer both long and short-term therapy.

My main clinical approach is an integration of psychodynamic, Jungian and relational therapy. This model supports deeply personalized, in-depth work of current concerns, past history, symbolic material and the unconscious. I find this holistic approach invaluable in the process of healing and the reconnecting with your vitality and unique self-expression.

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics.

FORMAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING:

I hold a master's degree in counseling psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute. Major coursework included human development, psychopathology, and marriage, family, and relationship counseling. I am trained as an EMDR therapist (Eye Movement Desensitization Reprocessing Therapy) and have studied trauma, effects of trauma, and treatment approaches for adults, adolescents, and children.

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I am required to participate in continuing education, taking classes dealing with subjects relevant to the profession.
